

Lying in my hammock

Em

I was lying in my hammock

B

To cure my writers block

Em

That began when I went outside

B

And the door fell in the lock

Em

I had to wait for someone

Someone with the key

Em

It was getting all cloudy

B

But that someone I did not see

Em

So I went into the garden

B

Hung the hammock on the tree

Em

I was lying in my hammock

B

To cure my writers block

Em

It all began when I went outside

B

And the door fell in the lock

Em

Lying in my hammock

I was looking up

Em

I saw the clouds grow darker

B

Maybe I should go to the pub

Em

I was lying in my hammock

B

To cure my writers block

Em

It all began when I went outside

B

And the door fell in the lock

Em

I was lying in my hammock

B

When it started to rain

Em

I went out of my hammock

I kept waiting in the rain

Em

I'm not lying in my hammock

Hello writers block

Em

Please make it stop raining

B

So I can write some punk rock

Em

I was lying in my hammock

B

When it started to rain

Em

I went out of my hammock

I kept waiting in the rain

I kept waiting in the rain

I kept waiting in the rain
